

Redouble (Could mean trouble!)

This is good for a redouble.

Here's your hand:

AJ54 4 KQ94 Q943

Here's the auction:

N (pard)	RHO	S (You)	LHO
1 heart	X	XX	P

What does this say so far?

North: I have at least 12 HCP and at least 5 hearts.

RHO: I have 11 or more HCP and support for the other suits.

South: Don't worry, pard! I have 11 or more HCP and we have the opponents outgunned point-wise. You have hearts and I have everything else. Let's play Serial Killer Bridge!

This is good for an SOS redouble.

Here's your hand:

Here's the auction:

N (pard)	RHO	S (You)	LHO
1C	P	P	X
P	P	XX

What does this say so far?

North: I have at least 12 HCP and at least 3 clubs

RHO: I have no bid over one club

South: I don't have enough points to respond over one club

LHO: I have enough to double in the balancing seat and support for the other suits

North: Okay with me.

RHO: Okay with me, too. I have clubs for sure!!

South (You): I can't stand this, pard. You'll be better if you're doubled in some other suit, so choose one!
